Home of the Kwahadi Indian Dancers, Venture Crew Nine, Troop 9, BSA, & GSA Troop 9!

Located on the High Plains of Texas, the Kiva is 238 miles from Philmont and convenient to numerous mountain camps. Over 6000 Scouts have stayed at the Kiva since it opened on June 12, 2004! The Kiva can be a fun and uplifting event for your Scouts with a performance, meals, and lodging provided for your group, or you can just stop by on your journey for a travel break, museum tour, and/or a Kwahadi performance! For lodging reservations for your group, call or email Charles Ritchie: charles.ritchie@amaisd.org Ofc. 806-326-1335 Hm: 353-1505, cell 654-4890 www.kwahadi.com Available year-round.

You are always welcome at the Kwahadi Kiva! The air-conditioned Kiva has 9 showers. Enjoy the adobe ambience of the Plaza, Kiva, Santa Fe Room, Taos Room, and Patio. Walk the Eagle Trail around the Kiva through the landscaping, play on the west lawn, or enjoy volleyball on the sand court. Ladies have their own shower area. Bring your own air mattresses, cots, and bedding. For fly-in groups, the Amarillo International Airport is nearby and charter bus or van rental service for the rest of your trip is available locally.

Colorful pageants of the dance styles of the American Indian! Plan to see the shows!

2009 European Show Tour

July 16 - August 9, 2009

The Kwahadis will depart on July 16 for a three week, 19 performance show tour to Denmark, Germany, Ireland, and the UK.

The Kiva is home to the Kwahadi Indian Dancers, Venture Crew 9, BSA. Over 1600 Scouts have performed as Kwahadis since 1944 in over 4000 performances in 46 states and overseas. We just celebrated our 288th Eagle Scout and our first Venture Ranger Award and our first Girl Scout Gold Award! Kwahadi performances are scheduled on most Friday and Saturday nights in the summer or on other nights when we have sufficient visitors. You can also see the Kwahadis on many summer Monday nights at the Philmont Training Center at 7:00 PM! Over 100 Native American artists and artisans are represented in the Kiva Trading Post. Fine art, jewelry, Katchina dolls, pottery, rugs, and craft supplies, as well as souvenir patches, and Indian goods available.

Come see the Kwahadis! You'll be glad you did!

The Kwahadi Northeast Show Tour 2008 included a performances on July 31 for hundreds of Scouts from around the world at the Michigan International Scout Camp and for councils across the Northeast! They entertained at the Chickasaw Council Scout Base in October 2008 for 10,000 Scouts, and will perform in the summer of 2009 at the Windjam in England for 8000 Scouts in 2009, and for 30,000 Scouts at the 100th Anniversary of Scouting Jamboral in Utah in 2010. The Kwahadis perform for fundraisers for councils, OA, district, and units coast to coast.
